WMPMI - We Are Committed to Advancing the Project Management Profession

Our mission is to provide Project Professionals and employers with knowledge platforms and resources, career-long learning and development, and gold-standard professional certifications.

Our vision is to be the leading authority and global community for project success, advancing a world where every project—responsibly—delivers maximum value.

Connect With a Leading Project Management Organization

The Project Management Institute (PMI) is the world's authority on project management—supporting over 750,000 professionals across 300+ chapters in 80 countries. Since 1969, PMI has empowered individuals and organizations through globally recognized certifications, industry insights, and a collaborative professional network.

A recent PMI report highlights an urgent global talent gap in project management, projected to reach 30 million roles by 2035. Addressing this challenge demands strategic investment in skills development—an area where PMI leads with impact.

As the chartered PMI chapter for Western Michigan, WMPMI serves over 850 members and a broader professional community spanning from Lansing to the Upper Peninsula. We offer project professionals across key industries—healthcare, manufacturing, IT, construction, and more—access to high-impact learning, networking, and leadership development.

WMPMI is not just a chapter; we're a vital hub driving project excellence across Michigan.

Partnering with WMPMI means aligning your brand with a high-performing, mission-driven community—and gaining direct access to the project leaders, influencers, and talent shaping the future of Michigan's industries.

Elevate Your Brand: Increase your organization's visibility, credibility, and recognition among Michigan's most engaged project professionals and industry leaders.

Connect with Top Talent: Engage directly with professionals at the forefront of project management innovation—ideal for recruitment, collaboration, and knowledge exchange.

Invest in Workforce Development: Demonstrate your commitment to employee growth by supporting access to professional learning and recertification through PDUs.

Align with a Proven Leader: Partner with a trusted PMI chapter backed by over 30 years of regional impact and a reputation for excellence in professional development.

Showcase Your Solutions: Highlight your products, services, and technologies at high-visibility WMPMI events—virtually or in-person.

Position Your Organization as a Thought Leader: Be seen as a forward-thinking supporter of project excellence—internally among your teams and externally across the business community.

What is the Purpose of the PMI Sponsorship Program?

The purpose of the Western Michigan PMI Chapter (WMPMI) Sponsorship Program is to create and maintain relationships with organizations that benefit from, support, and want to advance the discipline of Project Management. By creating a foundation of mutually beneficial cooperation, WMPMI seeks to strengthen its presence within the project management profession as well as the knowledge base of its members within the Western Michigan region.

What Are the Benefits of Sponsoring WMPMI?

Sponsoring WMPMI connects your organization with over 850 experienced project management professionals across key industries in Western Michigan. Our members include project managers, directors, and senior leaders who influence major business decisions and drive project success across companies, generating more than $200 billion in combined annual revenue.

Through sponsorship, you gain:

- Direct exposure to a highly engaged professional audience
- A platform to showcase your brand, products, and services
- Access to a proven pipeline of top-tier project talent

Your support also fuels WMPMI programs that build leadership, strategic, and technical capabilities—ensuring ongoing excellence in the project management profession.

Join us in advancing project leadership across Michigan—while positioning your brand as a leader within this thriving professional community.

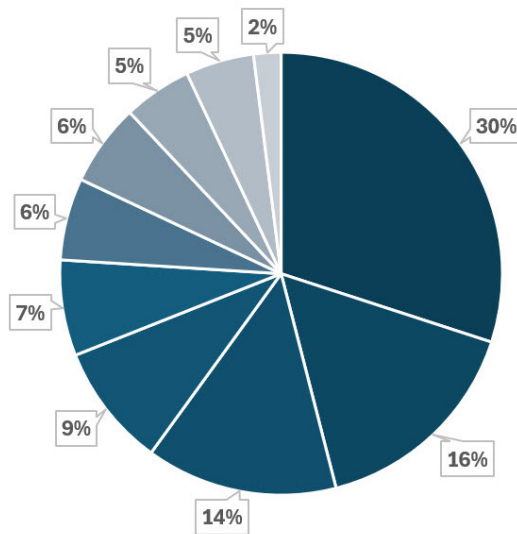

We have a lot going on throughout the year! Your organization would be represented prominently at all our events and programs. And, what's more, your organization will receive a number of complimentary tickets to our events relative to the sponsorship package you choose. Here is a list of our meetings and programs:
